

Children's experiences of Covid-19 and their hopes for the future

National Parents Council Primary Consent Form

Who are National Parents Council Primary (NPC)? National Parents Council Primary (NPC) is the representative organisation for parents of children in primary and early education. NPC was established in 1985, under the programme for Government, as the representative organisation for parents of children attending primary school.

Why do we need your consent? NPC would like to make a video of all of the experiences we receive and share it on our website, social media platforms and in a webinar. We need a parent/guardian's consent to share this information. We also need your child's agreement for you to send in their review.
